RECIPIENTS OF OAKLAND-ALAMEDA COUNTY COLISEUM FOUNDATION GEORGE P. SCOTLAN SCHOLARSHIPS NAMED

Ronald C. Nahas, President of the Board of Directors of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Foundation announced the recipients of the George P. Scotlan Scholarships. The scholarships are for $5,000 per year for a total of $20,000 over four years. They are awarded to honor Scotlan, a former member of the Coliseum Board of Directors. He also served as Special Assistant for Urban Affairs to the UC Berkeley Chancellor at the time of his death.

Grant Kelly graduated from Oakland Tech with honors from the Health Academy. Grant participated in a summer internship at the Oakland Veteran's outpatient clinic where he developed a strong sense of gratitude for our Veterans and distinguished himself as a compassionate caregiver. Grant is perfectly bilingual in French and English, and is also a gymnast. This gave him the opportunity to travel to Montréal to train in a summer program with Cirque du Soleil. Grant plans to study Pre-med with Business as a minor at Loyola Marymount University.

Angela Borglum graduated from Alameda High School, where she was student body president. Her passion for international relations and foreign affairs led to her being a Youth Ambassador in Uruguay where she lived for two months in a small rural village in the Dominican Republic. Locally, Angela organized and led efforts to win a $25,000 scholarship from State Farm for her school to raise the awareness of safe driving. She also volunteers her time with the Bud Branch organization that provides help for terminally ill children at Oakland Children's Hospital. Angela will be attending Harvard University to further her studies in International Relations.

Teresa Dayrit is a Berkeley High School graduate, with a perfect unweighted 4.0 GPA. Aside from excelling in AP chemistry and physics, Teresa also has a passion for music. She is a longtime member of the San Francisco Girls Chorus, has performed at Davies Symphony Hall, toured at competitions in Europe, and performed with the San Francisco Opera and Symphony. Teresa tutored math students, coached young singers, and committed four years to Best Buddies International, an organization that supports tutoring of students with developmental disorders. She will be applying her technical skills studying Materials Engineering at Stanford.

The Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Foundation was established to honor Coliseum President Emeritus Robert T. Nahas and to oversee charitable programs associated with the Coliseum. The Foundation also awards the Robert T. Nahas, Ann and Jon Reynolds, & Morgan Family scholarships.
